

M.S. in Kinesiology—Emphasis in Sport Pedagogy (Non-Thesis)

The M.S. in Kinesiology with an emphasis in Sport Pedagogy is designed for individuals seeking careers in education or education-related environments. The program is designed to provide requisite knowledge and skills needed to assume leadership roles in the individual's chosen environment.

Course Title	Course Description	Credit Hours
---------------------	---------------------------	---------------------

PRINCIPLES OF RESEARCH (Minimum Hours Required 7)

KINE 601*	Reading Research Publications in Kinesiology	3
KINE 681*	Seminar	1
KINE 690S* or	Statistics in Research	3
EPSY 636*	Techniques of Research	3
KINE 685	Directed Studies	1-3

KINESIOLOGY CORE (Minimum Hours Required 20)

Suggestions Only Unless Highlighted By An *

KINE 613*	Diversity in Sport Organizations	3
KINE 622* or	Supervision of Health and Kinesiology	3
KINE 624*	Pedagogical Research in Physical/Education	3
KINE 641*	Motor Neuroscience: Development Issues	3
KINE 649	Applied Exercise Physiology	3

SUPPORTING FIELDS (Minimum Hours Required 9)

Suggestions Only Unless Highlighted By An *

EDCI 644	Curriculum Development	3
EDCI 638	Trends in Curriculum & Instruction	3
EDCI 673	Analysis of Teaching Behavior	3
EPSY 602*	Educational Psychology	3

TOTAL MINIMUM HOURS REQUIRED 36

*Required Course